

---

COURSE DIRECTORS

Lynn Timko-Swaim, MS, RPAC

Clinical Assistant Professor
Director of Post-Professional Education
Department of Physician Assistant Education
School of Health Technology and Management (SHTM)
Stony Brook University

Nadya Dimitrov, DPM, RPAC

Clinical Assistant Professor
Assistant Director, PA Post-Professional Master's Program
Department of Physician Assistant Education
SHTM, Stony Brook University

FACULTY

Frank Caruso, MPS, RPAC

Clinical Professor
Winston-Salem State University
Director Satellite Operations,
Department of Orthopedic Surgery
Wake Forest University Medical Center

Paul Lombardo, MPS, RPAC

Clinical Associate Professor
Chair, Department of Physician Assistant Education
SHTM, Stony Brook University

Alexander Lopez, JD, OTR/L

Clinical Assistant Professor
Vice Chair, Occupational Therapy Program
SHTM, Stony Brook University

The State University of New York at Stony Brook is an affirmative action/equal opportunity educator and employer

---

Health Care Strategies for the 21st Century

A Spring “kick off” Seminar for Physician Assistants

March, 8- 9, 2008

Stony Brook Manhattan
New York, New York

Presented by the

Department of Physician Assistant Education
School of Health Technology & Management

Stony Brook University and the

New York State Society of Physician Assistants

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Saturday, March 8, 2008 Legal Issues in Healthcare

( 6 hours CME credit )

8:00 am	Check in
8:45 am	Welcome
9:00 am	Law as a Healing Profession
9:45 am	Tort Law and the Basics of Medical Malpractice
11:15 am	Break
11:30 am	Professional Judgment in the Health Care Professions
12:30 pm	Lunch (on your own)
1:30 pm	Health Care Fraud
2:30 pm	Break
2:45 pm	Legal Issues and Supervision of Health Care Professionals
4:30 pm	Adjourn

The Program has been reviewed and is approved for a maximum of 12 hours of clinical category I CME credit by the Physician Assistant Review Panel. Physician Assistants should claim only those hours actually spent participating in the CME activities. This program was planned in accordance with AAPA's CME standards for Live Programs and for Commercial support of Live Programs.

Sunday, March 9, 2008 Managed Care Strategies

( 6 hours CME credit )

8:15 am	Check in
8:30 am	Welcome
8:45 am	Rise of Managed Authority
9:45 am	Shaping the Medical System
10:45 am	Break
11:00 am	National Health Care and Current Political Events
12:00 pm	Lunch (on your own)
1:00 pm	PA Profession: Challenges in a Managed Care World
1:45 pm	Complexities of Health Care Delivery: Medicare and Medicaid
2:45 pm	Break
3:00 pm	Contract Negotiations
4:30 pm	Adjourn

We would like to thank the following for their support of this program:
Lippincott, Williams and Wilkins
McGraw Hill Publishers
Elsevier Saunders Publishers